CONGRESS PLANNING
EARLY ADJOURNMENT

House Leaders Issue Formal Call for Democratic Caucus Tuesday Night

Washington, May 8.—Plans for an early adjournment of congress took more definite shape today when the senate advanced its meeting hour from noon to 11 o'clock and house leaders issued the formal call for a democratic caucus Tuesday night. A "legislative program" will be laid out at the caucus, which will include adjournment as a leading feature. Leaders now believe the hope of adjournment July 10 may be realized. The house caucus Tuesday will consider a resolution announcing it to be the sense of the party that the anti-trust, interstate trade commission and railway capitalization bills, the rural credits measures and the appropriation bills should be passed and the house then adjourn.

The senate changed its meeting hour today to hasten passage of the agricultural appropriation bill. This bill has dragged along for more than a week and several senators are anxious that it be disposed of before other appropriation bills are reported.

There was one cloud on the adjournment horizon today when talk was renewed of an attempt to reach a vote at the present session on the proposed constitutional amendment for nationwide prohibition. There is little likelihood that the amendment will be taken up in the Tuesday caucus. The measure requires a two-thirds vote and leaders expect that it will be considered at this session with the prohibition "read" of other subjects that it is not believed will be taken up. The amendment delegates. If the plan is adopted, the conference will be made to the conference. This committee would have power to provide for the removal of the church interests in the university and the establishment of a new university. Dr. DuBose strongly favors the creation of a commission. The committee will be to the interests of Georgia and Atlanta. He made the statement, according to report, that the removal of the church from the university should be offered along also to the building up of Emory college.

The recent decision of the Tennessee supreme court, which was favorable to the trustees of Vanderbilt, is the cause of the present discussion.

Service Organized With Prayer.

In view of the many great problems before the church, and realizing their dependence for wisdom had strength upon God, the third day of the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, was opened with a service of prayer, and accordance with a resolution adopted the previous day.

Bishop Hendrix presided, and the Rev. J. C. Orr, a noted singer of the Holston conference of Tennessee, led singing. After Bishop Hendrix read the forty-sixth psalm, Bishop Wilson said: "There is urgent need that we should pray for our country in this time," he said. "Our homes are being invaded by war, our children are being killed, our prayers night and morning, are being answered by the demands of business and the clamor for peace. The victory over the world can only be assured through prayer. None of us are safe, clear: it requires a greater wisdom than we have."

The prayer and devotional service was closed by a brief address by Thomas B. King, of Memphis. He declared that the church had brought their religious work to the conference, and would do all possible to help the church members dispatch the work in the proper spirit.

Bishop Candler Presided.

When Bishop Candler, who presided over the day's sessions, called the roll, the conference of the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, was opened with a service of prayer, and accordance with a resolution adopted the previous day.

Methodists Asked to Build
Great University Here

Two Resolutions Introduced by Dr. DuBose Urge the Establishment of Second Vanderbilt in Atlanta.

Oklahoma City, Okla., May 8.—(Special.)—At the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, in session here, Dr. B. M. DuBose, of Atlanta, introduced two resolutions proposing the removal of Vanderbilt university from Nashville and establishing the principal educational institution of the church in Atlanta.

One resolution calls for the removal of the university from Nashville to Atlanta, rather than the theological department, and the withdrawal of future support of the church from the other departments. The other resolution suggests the establishment of a university in Atlanta. Both resolutions were referred to a special committee on the Vanderbilt question. The committee, appointed at the session held Thursday, was organized, but, because of the flood of matters touching on Vanderbilt, none of the questions submitted was discussed.

Change Strongly Favored.

Evidently there is a strong sentiment in favor of the removal of Vanderbilt. When Dr. DuBose was questioned, he stated that he believed that the general conference will appoint a special committee to consider the location of the university. It is reported that the movement is looked on with favor among the delegates. If the plan is adopted, the conference will be made to the conference. This committee would have power to provide for the removal of the church interests in the university and the establishment of a new university. Dr. DuBose strongly favors the creation of a commission. The committee will be to the interests of Georgia and Atlanta. He made the statement, according to report, that the removal of the church from the university should be offered along also to the building up of Emory college.

MISS LAW, OF ATLANTA,
WINS JUDGMENT ABROAD

$3,000 Annually From Breach of Promise Suit Against British Army Aviator.

London, May 8.—As a sequel to a breach of promise of marriage, judgment was given today to Miss Deryll Elizabeth Law, of Atlanta, Ga., in a suit brought to enforce payment of a settlement of $3,000 a year made in her favor by the late Captain Patrick Hamilton.

Captain Hamilton, a British army aviator, was killed while flying at Stenness, England, on November 8, 1912.

Miss Law is the only daughter of Mrs. N. Latham Law, of Atlanta. She became acquainted with Captain Hamilton on a flying tour of the world. She was alleged to have been seduced by him, and she claimed that he had promised to marry her.

After the captain's death the present suit was brought against his executors in the chancery court. Miss Law was awarded $3,000 a year, and she was ordered to pay the costs of the suit.

Well Known in Atlanta. Miss Deryll Elizabeth Law, the Atlanta girl mentioned in London press dispatches as having secured through the courts a settlement of $3,000 a year from the executors of the estate of the late Captain Patrick Hamilton, the British aviator, is presently connected in Atlanta. Her uncle, Captain Hamilton, was killed while flying at Stenness, England, on November 8, 1912.

Relatives, however, were reluctant when approached on the subject of Miss Law's engagement and the subsequent breach of promise. At the time of her departure for New York, she was subsequently met by Captain Hamilton, who was then in the United States, and was allegedly seduced by him.

Friends here say that after Miss Law's return from New York to Atlanta, she was subsequently met by Captain Hamilton, who was then in the United States, and was allegedly seduced by him.

According to information gathered among friends here, Miss Law and her mother are now in Europe, supposedly waiting to hear the results of the trial. Miss Law is understood to have been a comfortable sum from her husband at his death.

It is reported that Miss Law met Captain Hamilton in New York, with her mother, she lived at a fashionable boarding house in Central Park, east. Captain Hamilton was in New York at the time. He was making flights at some places in the spring of 1912.

COUNTY BOARD CONTEST BEFORE THE COMMITTEE

Fulton Democratic Body Will Consider the Hightower-
Turner Race.

A special meeting of the Fulton county democratic executive committee will be held at 12 o'clock today for the purpose of deciding whether or not there shall be a recount in the votes cast in the primary for T. J. Hightower, Jr., and Charles W. Turner for commissioner from the county-at-large.

According to the returns certified by the election managers, the total vote cast for Turner was 4,148 and the total for Hightower was 4,147. When the executive committee met on Thursday to declare the result of the election, Mr. Hightower, through his attorney, Walter L. Brown, asked for a recount and because there was a difference of only six votes between the candidates the committee was in a quandary.

Attorney Carter, who had been retained by Hightower, agreed to the recount, but afterwards developed that Mr. Turner had not authorized his attorney to make such an agreement.

Some members of the committee take the position that because of the narrow margin of votes between the candidates a recount should be held.

Other members say that to recount the votes would be a violation of the official declaration by the committee.

Dr. L. G. Gilchrist, chairman of the committee, has been asked to call for a recount.

Mr. Gilchrist has agreed to the recount, but has not yet decided whether or not to call for a recount.

More than 400 votes, has agreed to the result in the event the executive committee takes such action.

CLEAR AND LITTLE COOL FOR TWO DAYS, BUT WARM MONDAY

BENJ. M. HALL, JR., JOINS RECLAMATION SERVICE

Benjamin M. Hall, Jr., left yesterday for Provo, Utah, where he will be engaged by regular appointment as junior engineer in United States Reclamation service, assigned at present on the Strawberry valley project. Mr. Hall is one of the Georgia Tech graduates (class of 1912), whose honor corps work gave promise of a career in the army. He was assigned to the Reclamation service last year as an assistant engineer in the Provo project. His appointment was offered him by the chief engineer of the Reclamation service, without any special application, by the Reclamation service, without any special examination placing him high among the eligible men for the position. MEN AND RELIGION BULLETIN No. 114

Still Seeking Sanity

"I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly."

—John 10:10

In the May McClure's, Connie Mack, manager for years, and today, of the Athletics, baseball champions of the world, says:

"Moderate drinking gets a baseball player in the end just as sure as boozing—

"I wouldn't bother with a youngster who drinks. That's my fixed policy—

"I have proved up to my own satisfaction this business of clean living and quick thinking. It's the stuff champions are made of."

Of forbidding beer and wine on board our vessels, Current Opinion says:

"Secretary Daniels issued the order. President Wilson approved it. Rear Admiral Braisted, Surgeon-General of the Navy, recommended it. Colonel L. M. Maus, Chief Surgeon of the United States Army, Eastern Division, seems to have instigated it.

"Colonel Maus says:

"Lord Kitchener allowed his men no spirits in the Soudan campaign; Lord Roberts was equally opposed to its use in South Africa, and Sir Frederick Treves, who served at Ladysmith, said that the drinking men fell out and dropped as regularly as if they were labeled with the big letter D on their backs."

"One of Lord Wolseley's experiments, in which his troops were divided into three marching squads. The first had a daily ration of whisky, and at the start it marched gaily ahead. The second had a ration of beer, and it soon overtook and passed the whisky squad. The third squad marched on water. It maintained an even, steady gait, passed both the other squads and reached its destination long before the others."

"In the maneuvers of the Connecticut Militia last summer Colonel Maus notes similar results.

"The majority of the young men who fell out of line in the hot weather were declared inefficient by the medical officers because of the drinking of beer."

"Moderate drinking gets a player."

"Men who fell out of line."

RECALL THEM IN YOUR LIFE! Possibly your brother—certainly some relative and more than one friend known personally to you—once good fellows all, but now dead or out of the game, fallen out of God's battle line because of drink. And back of each of these are scarred hearts and the tears of mothers and wives.

Well may drinkers sing: "Wine, woman and song."

For without the drug of alcohol there could be neither laughter nor song while pitiless wrong is being wrought upon womankind.

And yet, when a great body of men, Masons all, whose very creed is help for the helpless and the defense of women, the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man—when such as these come to the capital of Georgia, whose laws forbid the sale of liquor, law breakers are able to go to our City Council and get a special license to ply their traffic into the small hours of morning.

Atlanta will remember.

AND HER CHURCHES SEND WORD TO THE WORLD THAT THIS ACTION, THIS AFFRONT TO MASONRY DOES NOT SPEAK THE WILL OF OUR CITY, BUT ONLY OF THE FEW WHOSE DAY IS RAPIDLY WANING. A MINORITY OF JERUSALEM SHRIEKED AGAINST THE CHRIST: "HE HATH A DEVIL AND IS CRAZY." WHEN HE SAID:

"I AM COME THAT THEY MIGHT HAVE LIFE, AND THAT THEY MIGHT HAVE IT MORE ABUNDANTLY."

But He has conquered.

Sanity? You know—

The Cross, sacrifice of self for the salvation and happiness of others, is the summit of wisdom.

Christ calls to the broader, braver, better life of joy for all, as opposed to the narrow, self-centered existence that seeks sensual pleasure for the few regardless of the agony and suffering resulting to the many.

And you—you will come with your Lord.

BANKERS WON'T EXTEND NOTES OF GOULD ROAD

New York, May 8.—The latest attempt to readjust finances of the Gould railroad system came to naught today, when Kuhn, Loeb & Co., bankers, refused to extend the $15,000,000 of Missouri Pacific railway three-year notes, maturing June 1.

The bankers stated no reason for their conclusion except to say that "conditions governing the status of the property do not warrant such an undertaking at this time."

Directors of the Missouri Pacific were holding a special session. They adjourned to meet tomorrow, with a view to meet the notes. This will be made up by an extension of a year or more, it was said.

Missouri Pacific and other Gould lines were the weakest features of the day's reactionary stock market.

J. C. BRITT MISSING, BUT WOMAN IN CASE IS PUT UNDER BOND

John C. Britt, alias John Price, a salesman of Marietta, who was arrested Thursday night in a room at the Cumberland hotel with Mrs. Rosa Knight, the carbonic acid victim, was a fugitive from justice Friday, skipping trial under a $100,000 bond.

Nash Boyles bound the woman over for adultery and furnished a $1000 bond, and ordered the arrest of Britt.

J. C. Clark, the bondsman, is searching the city for the fugitive.

Britt secured the consent of Mrs. Knight to leave her in prison, so she says, in order to get out and arrange for her release. At the trial he failed to make an appearance, and it was decreed that he had given the police officers his wrong name.

A lady who runs a boarding house at No. 45 Nelson street testified that Britt and Mrs. Knight last Saturday saw him at her house since last Saturday she appeared not to know it.

The husband of Mrs. Knight, whom she accuses of trying to destroy her beauty by throwing the carbonic acid at the Piedmont hotel on the night of March 8, will now sue his wife for divorce. Knight was recently tried for this charge of his wife, and the case against him was dismissed.

"This is nothing but a piece of spite work," said Mrs. Knight, "on the part of my husband. He has been trying to get me out of my home for some time, and he will suffer for it."

Knight told Judge Boyles that he was afraid of his wife, declaring that she had made several threats to harm him. He claims that the bitterness of life toward him is due to his having been little 3-year-old girl taken away from her custody by the courts.
